

K. RENEE RIPPETOE

Project Manager

Education: M.S., Industrial Hygiene, Central Missouri State University
B.S., Chemical Engineering, University of Kansas

Certifications: Air Sampling Professional - Missouri and Illinois
Asbestos Inspector - Missouri and Illinois
Asbestos Management Planner - Missouri and Illinois
Asbestos Project Designer - Missouri
Lead Inspector/Risk Assessor - Missouri and Illinois
Lead Project Designer - Missouri
Associate Safety Professional

Affiliations: AIHA

Experience: over 20 years

Renee Rippetoe is a Senior Associate with Jurgiel & Associates. Her primary focus is in Asbestos and Lead Consulting, in addition to Industrial Hygiene Consulting. Ms. Rippetoe's primary responsibilities are summarized below:

- | | |
|---------------------------|---|
| Asbestos and Lead | <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Identification Inspections○ Technical Specifications○ Project Management and Supervision○ Air Sampling Support |
| Industrial Hygiene | <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Indoor Air Quality Investigations○ Personnel Training○ Special Projects related to Lead |

Examples of several long-term clients served by Ms. Rippetoe are listed below:

- | | |
|----------------------------|---|
| Asbestos Management | <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Ritenour School District○ St. Louis Public Libraries○ Veteran's Administration Hospital |
| Lead Management | <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ St. Louis Zoo○ Emerson Electric Company |

Ms. Rippetoe has been actively involved in asbestos related projects since prior to the establishment of AHERA and is currently our resident lead expert. As a result, her experience is very extensive and varied.

Prior to joining Jurgiel & Associates, Ms. Rippetoe was employed by Hall-Kimbrell Environmental Services where she performed asbestos identification surveys and monitored asbestos removal projects. She was with the State of Kansas, Department of Health and Environment, as part of a consultation service regarding federal regulations for asbestos in schools.